

Contents

1. Introduction	1
Framework for Writing Instruction	1
Writing Theory and Research	2
The CCSS	3
Curriculum	4
Common Instructional Elements	4
Content and Organization of This Book	5
2. How Writing Develops	7
Guiding Questions	7
Handwriting Development	9
Spelling Development	12
Composition Development	14
CCSS and Writing Development	24
Conclusion	26
3. Teaching Handwriting	27
Guiding Questions	27
Why Handwriting Instruction Is Important	27
CCSS Related to Handwriting	29
Foundations of Handwriting Instruction	30
Essential Elements of Handwriting Instruction	37
Instructional Decisions for Handwriting	45
Building Best Instructional Practices into the Curriculum	48
Handwriting Instruction in the Age of Keyboarding	49
Differentiating Handwriting Instruction	50
Conclusion	51

4. Teaching Spelling	52
Guiding Questions	52
Why Spelling Instruction Is Important	52
CCSS Related to Spelling	54
Foundations of Spelling Instruction	56
Essential Elements of Spelling Instruction	59
Spelling Assessment	69
Differentiating Spelling Instruction	70
Conclusion	71
5. Teaching Sentence Construction	72
Guiding Questions	72
Why Teaching the Basics of Composition Is Important	72
CCSS Related to Beginning Composition	74
Essential Elements of Teaching Students to Write Sentences	74
Differentiating Sentence Writing Instruction	88
Conclusion	90
6. Genre-Specific Writing Instruction	91
Guiding Questions	91
CCSS Related to Genre-Specific Composition	92
Essential Elements of Genre-Specific Writing Instruction	93
Differentiating Instruction	101
Genre Instruction across the School Year	104
What's Ahead	105
7. Teaching Students to Write Book Reviews	107
Guiding Questions	107
Lesson Sequence for Teaching Opinion Writing via Book Reviews	108
Conclusion	125
8. Teaching Students to Write Narratives	126
Guiding Questions	126
Lesson Sequence for Teaching Narrative via Personal Narratives	127
Conclusion	140
9. Teaching Students to Write Descriptions	141
Guiding Questions	141
Lesson Sequence for Teaching Informative Writing via Descriptions	142
Conclusion	160
10. Supporting Students with Writing Needs	162
Guiding Questions	162
Types of Writing Difficulties	163

The Writing Needs of Students with Disabilities	169
The Writing Needs of Students Who Are English Language Learners	171
Multi-Tiered Intervention Systems for Students with Writing Problems	177
Conclusion	183
11. Conclusion: Meeting the Challenges of Early Writing Instruction	185
Four Instructional Challenges	185
Scheduling Writing Instruction	189
Integrating Instruction	190
Appendix A. Letter-Writing Assessment	191
Appendix B. Sound-Spelling Assessment	192
Appendix C. Rubrics for Opinion Texts	193
Appendix D. Rubrics for Narrative Texts	196
Appendix E. Rubrics for Informative/Explanatory Texts	199
References	201
Index	209

Purchasers can download and print larger versions of select figures and Appendices A–E from www.guilford.com/coker-forms.