

Table of Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
About the Author	xi
Introduction – Why Manage Your Classroom	1
1. Advantages to Managing Your Classroom	7
The 21st Century Three Rs	9
Other Advantages to Managing Your Classroom	12
2. Importance of 21st Century Skills	15
21st Century Survival Skills	15
Accessing and Analyzing Information	16
Curiosity and Imagination	17
Initiative	18
Adaptability	21
Effective Oral and Written Communication	23
Critical Thinking and Problem Solving	24
Collaboration Across Networks	25
3. Setting Up Your Projects	29
Define the Problem	29
Develop Solution Options	31
Plan the Project	34
Execute the Plan	35
Monitor and Control Progress	40
Close Project	44
4. Linking the Projects to the Standards:
Creating a Mission Statement	47
Starting With the Content Standard	48
Working Backwards	51

5. Collaboration in the 21st Century Classroom	57
Skill of Collaboration	59
Setting Norms	62
Dividing Up Tasks	64
6. Risk Management	67
Why Projects Fail	67
Heading Off Problems	71
Handling the Unmotivated	74
Risk Management	75
7. Different Types of Products	79
Presentation	80
Museum/Exhibit	81
Debate	82
Performance	83
Competition	83
Portfolio	85
Research Paper	86
Model	87
Technology-Driven Products	87
Entrepreneurship	92
The Lemonade Stand	92
Social Studies Product—Business Plan	93
Language Arts Product—Advertising Campaign	93
Math Product—Polling/Accounting	93
8. Assessment of the Product	95
Use of Rubrics	95
Creating Your Rubrics	97
Creating Rubrics With Students	105
Performance Reviews (Self/Peer Evaluations)	106
9. Managing the Classroom	111
Orientation/Training Your Students	111
Laying the Groundwork	113
Making the Structure Clear	114
Model the Structure With a Mini-Project	117
What Training Will Be Important to the Job?	122

Providing Mental Space	123
Project Manager Versus Teacher	125
Closing the Project	126
Afterword: Creating the 21st Century Worker	131
Reproducibles: Blank Forms for Creating Own PBL	133
Project Contract	133
Interoffice Memorandum	134
One Page Project Manager	135
Compass Points Activity Directions	136
Compass Points (Diagram)	137
Compass Points Questions	138
Peer Review of Writing	139
Invent a Better Mousetrap Project	140
References	145
Index	149

Visit the companion website at <http://resources.corwin.com/St StanleyCreatingLearners> for additional resources.