Introduction by
Gail Peter Borden, AIA, Borden Partnership 10

For each project a list of related materials has been included. The numbers are Material ConneXion's MC Index numbers which are a six-digit reference that is unique to each material in the library. The first four digits correspond to a specific manufacturer, in chronological order of acceptance into the archive. The last two digits are the chronological reference of each specific material from that manufacturer. The MC numbers are the basis for how searches are conducted through the thousands of materials that exist in the library.
