Contents

Links for a Teacher's Guide to Student Self-Pacing in the Digital Classroom xiii

Preface xix
- Purpose and Rationale xix
- A Brief Overview xx
- Why You Should Buy This Book xxii

Acknowledgments xxiii

About the Author xxv

PART I: THE TEACHER AS LEADER OF THE DIGITAL CLASSROOM

1. Our Changing Digital World 3
   - Touring the Internet 3
     - Smartphones, Tablets, and Laptops 5
     - The Internet—What Is It Exactly? 6
     - The Cloud 7
     - Browsers 8
     - Search Engines 9
     - Cookies You Don't Want to Eat 10
     - QR Codes 11
   - Becoming Responsible Digital Citizens 11
     - Citing Sources 12
     - Digital Laws: FERPA, COPPA, and CIPA 13
     - Higher Levels of Learning 14
   - Classroom Examples 17
   - Educator Challenges 18

2. Teacher Collaboration: Online Professional Learning Communities 21
   - Professional Learning Communities 21
   - Expanding Your PLCs to Social Media 22

Using Twitter to Build Your PLC 23
Getting Started on Twitter 24
Tips on Composing Tweets 25
Connecting With Other Educators 25
Using Storify to Save Tweets 27
Using Hashtags to Have Conversations on Twitter 28
Utilize Twitter as Your Own Personal PLC by Searching for Popular Hashtags 30
Using Google+ as a PLC Resource 31
Google+ Communities 32
Following People on Google+ 33
Google+ Hangouts 33
Scheduling a Meeting Time 34
Starting a Google Hangout 34
Expand Your PLC by Following Bloggers 35
Educator Blogs 36
Bookmarking in the Cloud 36
Google Bookmarks 37
Saved.io Bookmarks 38
Some Closing Thoughts on Online PLCs 39
Classroom Examples 40
Educator Challenges 41

3. Storing and Sharing in the Cloud 43
Google Drive Techniques for the Classroom 44
Uploading 44
Google Drive Folders 45
Google Drive Documents 47
Using the Cloud to Stem Plagiarism 48
Refining Google Drive Documents 49
Inserting Images 49
Drawing 50
Sharing Google Drive Files With Students and Colleagues 51
Beyond Documents 54
Splitting Your Screen 54
Presentations 54
How to Use Google Forms 56
Templates 57
Google Translate 58
Math Symbols 58
Adding Applications to Your Google Drive Account 58
Syncing Google Drive With Your Laptop 59

Classroom Examples 60
Educator Challenges 61

PART II: THE SELF-PACED STUDENT

4. The Self-Paced Anchor: Flipping the Classroom 65
What Is Flipping? 66
What to Flip 68
Making Your Own Screencast 69
Creating a YouTube Playlist 71
Learning From a Flipped Video Lecture 72
Video Not.es 73
Student Questions 74
The Flipped Classroom 75
Flipped Class Resources 77
Flipped Video Collections 77
PLCs for Flippers 77
Classroom Examples 79
Educator Challenges 80

5. Interactive Assignments 83
Creating Interactive Assignments 83
Interactive Learning and Its Benefits Defined 83
Student Reading Levels 85
Textbook Reading Levels 85
Learning Styles 86
Bloom's Taxonomy 87
Resources for Creating Interactive Assignments 89
Fakebook, Faketweet, Faketext 89
Free Textbook Resources Online 91
Hippocampus 91
Wikipedia 92
Create Your Own eBooks! 93
Rubrics 93
What to Do When Technology Devices Are Lacking in Your Schools 95
Classroom Examples 96
Educator Challenges 97

6. Student Collaboration: Engaging Students With Mobile Learning 99
Making the Case for Mobile Devices in the Classroom 99
Bring Your Own Devices (BYOD) 100

Changing Teaching Styles in a Digital Classroom 101
Engaging Your Students With Cooperative Groups 103
Cloud-Based Cooperative Groups 103
International Cooperative Groups 103
Cooperative Learning Using Twitter 104
Using a Google Drive Document for Students Not on Twitter 105
Other Tools to Engage Students 106
Integrating Quick Response Into the Classroom 106
Jigsaw Grouping 107
Online Platforms 108
Texting Student Reminders 108
Shrinking Your URLs 110
Classroom Examples 112
Educator Challenges 115

7. Formative and Summative Assessment of Student Learning 117
Formative and Summative Evaluations 118
Preparing for the Formative and Summative Evaluations 120
Study Groups on Google Hangouts 120
Study Groups on Free Conference Call 120
Online Tools for Conducting Formative Assessments 121
Twitter 121
TodaysMeet 121
Google Forms and Flubaroo 122
Poll Everywhere 122
Cel.ly 124
Quizlet 125
Classroom Examples 127
Educator Challenges 127

8. Looking Forward Into the Present 129
Classroom Example: Mooresville, North Carolina 131
Educator Challenges 133

References 135

Index 139