

Contents

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction 1

1 Writing and Knowledge 17

The Writers' Block Myth 18

Knowing 22

Your writer self 26

Emotion as material 32

2 Writing the Self 35

Memoir and autobiography 37

Reflective writing 45

Human interest features 53

Personal essays, and “Why I Write” 59

3 Poetics and Poetry Composition 65

Poetic movements: An abridged whirlwind history 68

Poetry as “language distilled” 74

Sound devices 81

Poetry and orality 84

Form and meaning 88

Sonnets 89

Finding your poem 94

4 Fiction Conventions 97

Fiction and creativity: The anecdote, the muse, and the visionary 98

Ideas and themes 103

Narrative structure 106

Narrative structure toolbox 109
Plot and conflict 114
Characterization 118
Setting: Time, place, and context 121
Finding your voice 126
Genre fiction 132

5 Screenwriting Techniques 135

The slug line 137
Action 137
Dialogue 141
Characterization 149
Theme and narrative 153
Screenwriting technical toolbox 164

6 Writing for Performance 169

One-act plays 169
Monologue and soliloquy 176
Spoken word 180

7 Writing for Digital Media 185

Digital storytelling 186
Web 2.0 and journalism as conversation 189
Online media toolbox 190
Personal publishing 195

8 Critique and Exegesis 201

Critique 202
Referencing scholarly texts 211
Referencing creative texts 214
Analyzing your creative work 217
Conclusions 218
Critique writing toolbox 219
Exegesis 221
Exegesis research methods 222
Identifying your exegetical thesis 224
Hermeneutics and close reading as primary research 226

Exegesis planning and structure 229

Linking creative and scholarly writing 231

Glossary of Terms 233

Works Cited 245

Index 249