

contents

6 foreword

8 introduction

16 the medium

66 one basic needs

The Camera
The Digital Image and Motion Control
A Simple Studio
A Complex Studio
The Power of Lighting

80 two simple techniques

Simple Clay Animation
Simple Object Animation
Other Animation Techniques

92 three models and modelmaking

Basic Principles
Making a Sheep
Gromit Construction
Wat Construction
Rex Construction
Preston

110 four set design and making

Planning a Set
A Straightforward Set
Outdoor and Landscape Sets
Matching Sets to Products
A Complex Set
Ingenuity and Props
Special Effects
Advanced Special Effects

132 five animation and performance

Movement
Walk Cycles
Making Movement Believable

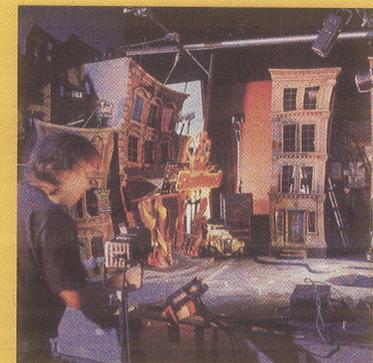

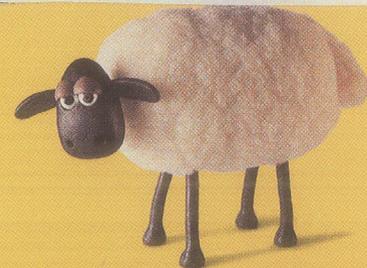

Call No. ....

วัน เดือน ปี

เลขทะเบียน

B5903593

Running and Tumbling
Action and Reaction
Special Movement Effects
Expressions and Gestures
Speech and Lip-sync

158 six CGI / computer-generated imagery

Modelling Figures and Sets
Rigging
Animation
Lighting and Rendering
CGI on the Big Screen

174 seven making a film

The Role of the Producer
Thinking about a Short Script
The Making of Pirates!
    Producing Pirates!
    Directing Pirates!
    Editing Pirates!

202 eight the Aardman showcase

Flash Animation and the Web
Online Games
Creating a Storyboard for Adam War Story
The Pearce Sisters
Ray's Big Idea
Dot
Morph
Angry Kid
Creature Comforts
Timmy Time
Wallace and Gromit
Chicken Run
Shaun the Sheep
Shaun the Sheep the Movie

- 266 a career in animation
- 268 filmography & bibliography
- 270 index