
Contents

Foreword by Erik Spiekermann ix

Introduction xi

Contributors xiv

Part 1 Historical perspectives

- 1 Early visualizations of historical time 3

Stephen Boyd Davis

- 2 Images of time 23

Christian Tominski, Wolfgang Aigner, Silvia Miksch, and Heidrun Schumann

- 3 William Playfair and the invention of statistical graphs 43

Ian Spence and Howard Wainer

- 4 Ship navigation 61

Thomas Porathe

- 5 Technical and scientific illustration 85

Clive Richards

- 6 The lessons of Isotype for information design 107

Robin Kinross

- 7 Marie Neurath: designing information books for young people 117

Sue Walker

- 8 Future, Fortune, and the graphic design of information 127

Eric Kindel

- 9 Some documents for a history of information design 147

Paul Stiff

- 10 Moral visualizations 161

Alberto Cairo

Part 2 Theoretical approaches

- 11 Graphic literacies for a digital age 177

Robert Waller

- 12 Visual rhetoric in information design 204
Jeanne-Louise Moys
- 13 Multimodality and genre 221
John A. Bateman
- 14 Interactive information graphics 243
Wibke Weber
- 15 Social and cultural aspects of visual conventions in information design 257
Charles Kostelnick
- 16 Textual reading on paper and screens 275
Anne Mangen
- 17 Applying science to design 291
Andrew Dillon

Part 3 Cognitive principles

- 18 Does my symbol sign work? 303
Theo Boersema and Austin Sorby Adams
- 19 Icons as carriers of information 315
Alison Black
- 20 Warning design 331
Michael S. Wogalter and Christopher B. Mayhorn
- 21 Diagrams 349
Barbara Tversky
- 22 Designing static and animated diagrams for modern learning materials 361
Richard K. Lowe
- 23 Designing auditory alarms 377
Judy Edworthy
- 24 Design challenges in helping older adults use digital tablets 391
Patricia Wright
- 25 On-screen colour contrast for visually impaired readers 405
Frode Eika Sandnes

- 26 Contrast set labelling 417
Ian Watson
- 27 Gestalt principles 425
Rune Pettersson
- 28 Information design research methods 435
Mary C. Dyson
- 29 Methods for evaluating information design 451
Will Stahl-Timmins
- 30 Public information documents 463
Dana P. Skopal

Part 4 Practical applications

- 31 Choosing type for information design 479
Paul Luna
- 32 Indexing and information design 487
Glenda Browne
- 33 When to use numeric tables and why 503
Sally Bigwood and Melissa Spore
- 34 Wayfinding perspectives 509
Colette Jeffrey
- 35 Designing for wayfinding 527
Fenne Roefs and Paul Mijksenaar
- 36 The problem of 'straight ahead' signage 541
Joan Zalacain
- 37 Park at your peril 553
Martin Cutts
- 38 Indoor digital wayfinding 561
Žiga Kropivšek
- 39 Visualizing storyworlds 577
Jona Piehl
- 40 Exhibitions for learning 591
María González de Cossío

- 41 Form follows user follows form 607
Borries Schwesinger
- 42 Information design & value 619
Andrew Boag
- 43 The LUNatic approach to information design 635
Robert Linsky
- 44 Information design as a (r)evolutionary educational tool 643
Barbara Predan and Petra Černe Oven
- 45 Design + medical collaboration 655
Mike Zender, William B. Brinkman, and Lea E. Widdice
- 46 Developing persuasive health campaign messages 669
Carel Jansen
- 47 Information design in medicine package leaflets 685
David Dickinson and Suzy Gallina
- 48 Using animation to help communication in e-PILs in Brazil 701
Carla Galvão Spinillo
- 49 Medical information design and its legislation 715
Karel van der Waarde
- Index 733