

Contents

Preface	vii
1 Representations of Professionalization in Second Language Writing: A View from the Flagship Journal Christine M. Tardy	3
2 Where It All Begins: Doctoral Studies as Professional Development in Second Language Writing Dwight Atkinson	21
3 Negotiating an Academic Position as an L2 Writing Specialist: The Case of a Second Language (L2) Writing Specialist in a Joint Appointment Pisarn Bee Chamcharatsri	33
4 An Early-Career Second Language Writing Scholar's Professional Development in Japan: Challenges and Issues Atsushi Iida	44
5 Emergent Professional Identities of an Early Career L2 Writing Scholar Soo Hyon Kim	54
6 Publishing as an Early Second Language Writing Scholar: Developing an Academic Voice and Navigating Disciplinary Expectations Todd Ruecker	66
7 Working Toward Being a Tenured Writing Program Administrator Tanita Saenkhum	80

8 Fake It 'Til You Make It: The Imposter Phenomenon in Gendered Academia	90
Deborah Crusan
Contributors	111
Index	115
About the Editors	121