

International Yearbook of Library and Information
Management

2000–2001

collection management

iylm INTERNATIONAL YEARBOOK OF
LIBRARY AND INFORMATION
MANAGEMENT

general editor
G E GORMAN

Contents

Editorial Advisory Board	ix
About the contributors	xiii
1 Introduction	1
Part 1 People, Principles and Problems	13
2 The blurring of boundaries: digital information and its impact on collection management Daniel G Dorner	15
3 Policy: politics, power and people Frederick J Friend	45
4 Economics and collection management Stephen A Roberts	59
5 Information, technology and diversity: censorship in the 21st century Susan E Higgins	99
Part 2 Electronic Publications, Access and Acquisitions	119
6 Electronic publications Thomas W Leonhardt	121
7 Serials management in developing countries: the case of Vietnam Van Son Vu	141
8 Access to journal literature in the electronic era John M Budd	153

9	Acquisitions: the emerging electronic paradigm	175
	Liz Chapman
10	Library purchasing consortia: their activity and effect on the marketplace	199
	David Ball and Jo Pye
11	New operating principles for collecting government documents	221
	Kathy E Tezla
	Part 3 Cooperative Collection Management and Storage Facilities	241
12	Collection management initiatives in Britain	243
	Clare Jenkins
13	Managing national distributed collections: reflections on the British experience	267
	Alicia Wise
14	Library storage facilities and services	291
	Lizanne Payne
	Part 4 Evaluating and Weeding	307
15	Changing collections, changing evaluation	309
	G E Gorman and Ruth H Miller
16	Weeding library collections: conundrums and contradictions	339
	Roy Williams
	Part 5 Preservation and Archives	363
17	Preservation management: something old, something new	365
	Charles F Thomas
18	Rare book collections in an electronic environment: the Shanghai Library experience	381
	Jieyin Feng
19	Records acquisition and appraisal in the information age	401
	Rachel Lilburn
	Index	429