

OXFORD

media ethics

an introduction to responsible journalism

JOHAN RETIEF

Contents

Preface		viii
Part I Foundations
1	Ethics	3
2	The law: codes of ethics	25
Part II Ethical issues
3	Accuracy	49
	Case Study 1 Orders to kill?	57
	Case Study 2 Dead bodies necklaced	59
	Case Study 3 "The very opposite"	62
	Case Study 4 "Evidence" as truth	63
	Case Study 5 Background information omitted	65
4	Truth and deception	67
	Case Study 1 A bit too low	75
	Case Study 2 Paedophile's home filmed	76
	Case Study 3 Asked to lie	78
	Case Study 4 Dummy accidents	79
	Case Study 5 Teaming up	81
5	Fairness	83
	Case Study 1 A "possible suspect"	89
	Case Study 2 A bit more circumspection, please	91
	Case Study 3 A hostile climate?	93
	Case Study 4 Views not included	95
	Case Study 5 Focus on the conflict	95
6	Objectivity	99
	Case Study 1 How could you?	106
	Case Study 2 Criminal collusion?	108
	Case Study 3 A partial panel	110
	Case Study 4 His master's voice?	112
	Case Study 5 Participating in a smear campaign	114

7	Confidentiality	117
	Case Study 1	Not prepared to testify 125
	Case Study 2	Rumours, rumours, rumours 126
	Case Study 3	To be or not to be 128
	Case Study 4	Real sources? 129
	Case Study 5	Prepared to go to jail 130
8	Conflict of interest	133
	Case Study 1	From the same company 141
	Case Study 2	"Fertile ground for impropriety" 143
	Case Study 3	State money for a newspaper 143
	Case Study 4	Editorial (in)dependency 144
	Case Study 5	Agents of the state 146
9	Invasion of privacy	151
	Case Study 1	Elderly abuse 161
	Case Study 2	Bugged 162
	Case Study 3	A South African paparazzo 163
	Case Study 4	A widow's privacy invaded? 164
	Case Study 5	Pay up! 167
10	Trauma	171
	Case Study 1	On the (bloody) scene 181
	Case Study 2	Watershed at the Waterfront 182
	Case Study 3	Interviewing the dying 185
	Case Study 4	Blown to pieces 187
	Case Study 5	Hole in the head 190
11	Stereotyping	193
	Case Study 1	"A piece of fascist architecture" 205
	Case Study 2	"Love" or "hate" characters 206
	Case Study 3	Disgusting racist reporting 208
	Case Study 4	The mocking of stutterers 210
	Case Study 5	In lighter vein 211
12	Social responsibility	213
	Case Study 1	Obscenity, nudity, indecency 225
	Case Study 2	"Blasphemy" 228
	Case Study 3	Violence (not nudity) 230
	Case Study 4	Change of attitudes 231
	Case Study 5	Sliding down the precipice 233

13	Addendum: codes of ethics	237
	Institutional codes
	The Press Ombudsman of South Africa	237
	The South African Union of Journalists	240
	The South African National Editors' Forum	241
	The Freedom of Expression Institute	241
	The Broadcasting Complaints Commission of South Africa	242
	Professional codes
	Sowetan	244
	Sunday Times	245
	The Star	246
	Caxton (Rustenburg Herald)	247
	The SABC	252
	Bibliography	253
	Index	255