

David G. Lockwood

Syntactic Analysis and Description

A CONSTRUCTIONAL APPROACH

Contents

| | |
|--|-----------|
| Preface | ix |
| 1 Constructions, functions, and classes | 1 |
| What is syntax? | 1 |
| The construction: an essential element in syntax | 3 |
| Functions within constructions | 4 |
| The manifestation of functions | 5 |
| Application to basic clausal data | 5 |
| Orders of functions in transitive clauses | 7 |
| Summary of notations introduced | 11 |
| Exercises | 12 |
| Terminology | 16 |
| 2 Syntax and morphology: pre-editing syntactic data | 17 |
| Inflection in English | 17 |
| Abstracting out morphological details | 18 |
| Patterns of pre-editing | 25 |
| Summary of inflectional categories | 35 |
| Summary of new notations | 37 |
| Exercises | 38 |
| Terminology | 41 |
| 3 Types of phrase constructions | 42 |
| The noun phrase: a typical endocentric phrase | 42 |
| Other endocentric phrases | 48 |
| The problem of the verb phrase | 49 |
| Exocentric phrases | 53 |
| Summary of phrasal constituents and symbols | 57 |
| Exercises | 58 |
| Terminology | 61 |
| 4 Concord and government in the phrase | 62 |
| Simple concord | 62 |
| Gender concord | 65 |
| Grammatical government | 75 |
| Types of phrasal congruence | 81 |
| Notations for concord and government | 82 |
| Exercises | 86 |
| Terminology | 94 |

| | | |
|-----------|--|------------|
| 5 | Phrase coordination | 95 |
| | Basic varieties of coordination | 95 |
| | Position of conjunctions | 97 |
| | Formalization of coordination | 98 |
| | Structural types of coordination | 104 |
| | General patterns of coordination | 106 |
| | Exercises | 108 |
| | Terminology | 112 |
| 6 | Types of basic clause constructions | 113 |
| | Verbal clauses and their elements | 113 |
| | Basic clause types in English | 117 |
| | Expressing "being" in different languages | 122 |
| | Non-verbal clauses | 131 |
| | Summary of clausal constituents and symbols | 132 |
| | Exercises | 134 |
| | Terminology | 138 |
| 7 | Congruence and determination in the clause | 139 |
| | Congruence between Subject and Predicator | 139 |
| | Congruence between Predicator and Objects | 141 |
| | Government in the clause | 148 |
| | Determination | 150 |
| | Summary of new notations | 157 |
| | Exercises | 159 |
| | Terminology | 166 |
| 8 | Identification and description of clitics | 167 |
| | What is a clitic? | 167 |
| | Identification by separability | 168 |
| | Identification by comembership | 169 |
| | Identification by differential linkage | 170 |
| | Classification of clitics | 172 |
| | Fitting clitics into syntactic description | 174 |
| | Exercises | 177 |
| | Terminology | 184 |
| 9 | Negation in the clause | 185 |
| | Inflectional negation | 185 |
| | Negation by simple particles | 186 |
| | Discontinuous negation | 188 |
| | Special constituent orders in the negative | 192 |
| | Special relations of government in the negative | 194 |
| | Special auxiliary uses in the negative | 196 |
| | Negative concord and anti-concord | 198 |
| | Exercises | 201 |
| | Terminology | 207 |
| 10 | Varieties of clausal organization: accusative, ergative, and others | 208 |
| | Accusative and ergative perspectives illustrated | 208 |
| | Split ergativity | 211 |
| | Further varieties of organization | 214 |

| | |
|---|------------|
| Summary | 218 |
| Exercises | 220 |
| Terminology | 225 |
| 11 Voice and other forms of highlighting in the clause | 226 |
| Active and passive voices | 226 |
| Varieties of the passive | 230 |
| The antipassive | 236 |
| Highlighting in general | 238 |
| Exercises | 243 |
| Terminology | 251 |
| 12 Sentence constructions | 252 |
| The rank hierarchy | 252 |
| A traditional classification | 254 |
| An alternative traditional classification | 255 |
| Special sentence types of English | 258 |
| Summary of sentence structures | 262 |
| Exercises | 262 |
| Terminology | 265 |
| 13 Interrogation in clause and sentence structures | 266 |
| Basic classification of interrogatives | 266 |
| Expression of polarity questions | 266 |
| Varieties of supplement questions | 274 |
| Confirmatory questions | 278 |
| Summary | 279 |
| Exercises | 280 |
| Terminology | 288 |
| 14 Subordinate clauses and clausoidal phrases | 289 |
| English subordinate clauses | 289 |
| Clausoids in English: infinitive, participial, and gerund phrases | 294 |
| Clausoids in other European languages | 298 |
| The non-universality of clausoids | 301 |
| Exercises | 302 |
| Terminology | 309 |
| 15 Syntax and semology | 310 |
| Examples of semological effects on syntax | 310 |
| Agnation and semology | 312 |
| Markedness and semology | 313 |
| Semological control of syntax | 314 |
| Classifying semo-syntactic relations | 320 |
| Exercises | 325 |
| Terminology | 328 |
| Appendix: adaptations of the boxed notation | 329 |
| Glossary | 343 |
| References | 367 |
| Textbooks and other works on syntax | 367 |
| Sources consulted for language data | 368 |
| Index of languages | 371 |
| Index of names and terms | 373 |