

2000

DUKE OF EDINBURGH
ENGLISH LANGUAGE
COMPETITION
HIGHLY COMMENDED

The Teacher Development Series
Editor: Adrian Underhill

Children Learning English

Jayne Moon

TEACHER

MACMILLAN
HEINEMANN
English Language Teaching

Contents

	About the author	iv
	The Teacher Development Series	v
	Introduction to Children Learning English	vi
Chapter 1	Children learning English Children as language learners	1
Chapter 2	Do you like learning English? Pupils' attitudes to learning English	15
Chapter 3	Are they the same? Children come in all types	26
Chapter 4	We've found our partners, Miss Managing pupils' language learning	41
Chapter 5	Who has some good news for today? Effective teacher–pupil interaction	60
Chapter 6	Do you need a hand? Supporting children's language learning	75
Chapter 7	Can we do 'Poker face' again, Miss? Creating, adapting and evaluating activities for language learning	86
Chapter 8	Why did I do it like this? Planning for children's language learning	99
Chapter 9	What's your topic? Using a cross-curricular approach for organizing language learning	118
Chapter 10	Can we make a spinner? Involving children in making and using resources	135
Chapter 11	Learning to see Assessing learning and teaching	148
Chapter 12	How can I be a better language learner? Learning to learn	163
Epilogue	Looking forwards	177
	Glossary	182
	Index	184