

60  YEARS OF THE BANK OF THAILAND
1942 - 2002

ISBN 974-7341-47-6

Contents

Preface

Chapter 1 Evolution of Thailand's Economic and Financial System

1990-2000

page

1.1	Introduction	11
1.2	Macroeconomic Developments of the Past Decade	14
1.3	Request for Financial and Technical Assistance from the IMF	37
1.4	Impact on the Thai Economy	39
1.5	Impact on the Thai Financial Sector	49
1.6	Summary of the Causes of the Crisis	77
1.7	BOT after the Crisis	79

Chapter 2 BOT Modernization

page

2.1	Restructuring of the Organization and Work Processes	87
2.2	A Rebalancing Act of Monetary Policy	105
2.3	Strengthening of Financial Institution Supervision	113
2.4	Reengineering Financial Markets Operations	127
2.5	Establishment of Risk Management Office (RMO)	133
2.6	Establishment of Data Management Group (DMG)	135
2.7	Restructuring the Information Technology Group	138
2.8	Other Reforms	139
2.9	Preliminary Results of Restructuring	150

Good Governance and BOT	page
Governance in BOT	154
a. Accountability	155
b. Transparency	157
c. Predictability	158
d. Participation	159
3.2 Governance and BOT	160
Chapter 4 Outlook for Economic and Financial Development	page
4.1 Development in the Short Run	191
4.2 Economic Development in the Medium to Long Term	216
4.3 The Bank of Thailand's Role under the New Environment	222
Chapter 5 Future Directions	page
5.1 What is a Learning Organization?	237
5.2 Restructuring of BOT's Infrastructure	249
5.3 Fostering BOT's Deep Learning Cycle	249
5.4 Future Trend : Striving to Become a Learning Organization	264
References	266

Appendices

	page
1. Prime Ministers of Thailand, Ministers of Finance and Governors of the Bank of Thailand	271
2. Important Events and Policy Measures (1990-Present)	281
3. Transactions in Foreign Exchange Markets	297
4. Adjustment of the Exchange Rate Regime	304
5. Operating Results of the Financial Restructuring Agency	307
6. Fiscalization of Financial Institutions
Development Fund's Losses	312

Tables

	page
1.1 Thailand's Macroeconomic Developments 1997-1999	48
4.1 Macroeconomic Targets	217

Figures

	page
1.1 Private Capital Flows	32
2.1 Components of Modernization Programs Organization Structure	87
3.1 Output Management System	156
4.1 NPLs Situation and Development	215
5.1 Deep Learning Cycle	237
5.2 Organizational Architecture	238
5.3 Putting it all Together	239
5.4 Learning Process	240
5.5 Levels of Memory Structure	241
5.6 Memory Structure in an Organization
5.7 Comparison of Individual Experiential Learning (IEL) to Organizational Learning (OL)	244
5.8 Behavior of a Non-Learning Organization	247
5.9 Behavior of a Learning Organization	248

	page
Comparison of Articles VIII and XIV of the IMF	16
1.2 The Mexican Crisis and Its Consequences	26
1.3 Structure of the Financial System	51
1.4 Capital Support Facility (14 August 1998 Measure)	66
1.5 Lessons from Debt Restructuring Experience in Thailand	74
1.6 A Survey of External Stakeholders after the Crisis (1998-99)	82
2.1 The Modernization Framework	89
2.2 Strategy of BOT Restructuring	100
2.3 Task Reallocation under the New Structure	103
2.4 Restructuring the Monetary Policy Group	112
2.5 Restructuring the Supervision Group (SVG)	120
2.6 The New BIS Capital Accord	123
2.7 Restructuring the Financial Markets Operations Group (FMOG)	128
2.8 Establishment of Risk Management Office	134
2.9 Establishment of Data Management Group (DMG)	137
2.10 Restructuring the Information Technology Group	140
2.11 Restructuring the Human Resources Group (HRG)	142
2.12 Restructuring the Operations Groups	145
3.1 Dhamma for Central Bankers : Ethical Responsibilities are Critical to National Development	162
4.1 Establishment of the Thai Asset Management Corporation	203
4.2 Credit Bureau	208
4.3 The Merger of Bangkok Metropolitan Bank and Siam City Bank	212
4.4 The Bank of Thailand's Role in Payment Systems Development	231
5.1 Steps in Implementing a Learning Organization	245
5.2 Priorities in Organizing Courses on Management and Soft Skills	255
5.3 Human Resources Development Policy of BOT	258
5.4 A survey of Perception, Attitude and Behavior of BOT Staff	262