

Grammar and Vocabulary

A resource book for students

Howard Jackson

CONTENTS

Contents cross-referenced	xii
List of tables	xiv
List of figures	xv
Acknowledgements	xvi

A Introduction: key concepts in grammar and vocabulary

1 Words and sentences	1
2 Word classes	4
3 Word structure	8
4 Slots and fillers	12
5 Sentence patterns	17
6 Clauses and phrases	20
7 Grammar rules	24
8 Vocabularies	28

B Development: further concepts in grammar and vocabulary

1 Types of sentence	32
2 Noun and verb	35
3 Making new words	37
4 Subject and Object	40
5 Noun phrase and verb phrase	42
6 Main and subordinate	45
7 Breaking rules	47
8 'Jargon'	49

C Exploration: aspects of investigation

1 Sentence types in use	53
2 Classes of words	62
3 Types of word structure	73
4 Types of Slot	84
5 Components of phrases	94
6 Types of clause	104
7 Grammatical rules in context	113
8 Word-choice in use	124

D Extension: readings in grammar and vocabulary	136
1 Linguistic units and the sentence (Aarts and Aarts)	136
2 Grammatical class: the problem of labelling (Allerton)	140
3 Lexicalisation (Quirk, Greenbaum, Leech and Svartvik)	144
4 Valency theory (Herbst)	150
5 Pattern and meaning (Hunston and Francis)	156
6 The clause complex (Halliday)	162
7 Standard English (Trudgill)	170
8 Introduction to twentieth-century words (Ayto)	181
 Further reading	 190
References	194
Glossary of terms and index	196