

Inter text

Second Edition

Working with Texts

A core introduction to language analysis

Ronald Carter, Angela Goddard,
Danuta Reah, Keith Sanger and Maggie Bowring

contents

Notes on authors xi
Acknowledgements xiii
Introduction xv

Unit one: Signs and sounds

Aim of this unit 1
Contents 1
Texts used include 2

SIGNS 3
What is a sign? 3
As simple as ABC 8
Where it's @ 10
From speech to writing 13
Space-shifting 31
Who's in the picture? 40

SOUNDS 41
A sound alphabet 42
Speech production and description: consonants 44
It's not what you say, it's the way that you say it 49
Sound symbolism 51
Speech production and description: vowels 58

Answers to activities 69

Unit two: Words and things

73

Aim of this unit 73
Contents 73
Texts used include 75

WHAT ARE WORDS MADE OF? 75
WORDS AND MEANINGS 78
Lexical ambiguity: say what you mean, or mean what you say? 79

Metaphor: life's a beach, and then you fry 84
Idiomatic language: flogging dead crocodiles and keeping your feet under water 91
Computer analysis of words 93
Denotation and connotation: what are words worth? 102

WORDS AND HISTORIES 107

Got any spare words? 107
Words mean what I want them to mean 115
Get your new words here! Creating new words 118

Answers to activity 121
Commentaries on activities 121

Unit three: Sentences and structures

125

Aim of this unit 125
Contents 126
Texts used include 126

NOUNS AND PATTERNS 127

Pronouns and patterns 134

VERBS AND PATTERNS 139

Modals and modality 143

SENTENCES AND PATTERNS 146

Actives, passives and meanings 159
Computers, passives and meanings 160
Answer and commentary on activity 164

Unit four: Text and context: written discourse

165

Aim of this unit 165
Contents 166
Texts used include 167

MAKE AND MEND 168

TRACING THE PATTERNS 170

Lexical cohesion 171
Grammatical cohesion 187
Information structure 214

THE TEXTILE INDUSTRY 226

Answers to activities 241

Unit five: Text and context: spoken discourse

243

Aim of this unit 243

Contents 244

Texts used include 244

SPEECH EVENTS 244

STORYTELLING 248

Spoken versus written 248

Labov's narrative categories 250

SPEECHES 258

CONVERSATION 263

'Real' talk – what is it like? 265

Conversational maxims 267

Sequencing in conversation 270

CMC 276

Some guidelines on collecting speech 278

Some guidelines on collecting CMC 279

Some guidelines on transcription 279

THE REPRESENTATION OF TALK 280

Genderised talk: real and represented 281

The representation of region, social class and ethnicity 294

Answer to activity 304

Commentaries on activities 305

Unit six: Applications

311

Aim of this unit 311

Further reading 323

References 325

List of URLs 327

Index of terms 329

Index of main texts 341