

ROUTLEDGE HEALTH MANAGEMENT SERIES

HEALTH INFORMATION MANAGEMENT

INTEGRATING INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY IN HEALTH CARE WORK

MARC BERG

Contents

List of illustrations	vii
Notes on contributors	ix
Series preface	xi
Acknowledgements	xiii
1 Introduction	1
Part I STARTING POINTS: UNDERSTANDING HEALTH CARE WORK AND THE ROLE OF IT	9
2 Waiting for Godot: episodes from the history of patient records Marc Berg and Brit Ross Winthereik	11
3 Health care work and patient care information systems	45
4 The contextual nature of information	65
5 Meeting the challenge: integrating quality improvement and patient care information systems Marc Berg and Cé Bergen	82
6 Designing interactions Enrico Coiera	101
Part II INFORMATION STRATEGY, IMPLEMENTATION AND EVALUATION	125
7 Information strategy: an introduction Bert Huisman	127
8 Developing the information strategy Cé Bergen and Marc Berg	144

CONTENTS

- | | | |
|-----------|--|------------|
| 9 | Implementing information systems in health care organizations:
myths and challenges | 173 |
| 10 | Project management of innovative PCIS implementations in health care
Cé Bergen | 192 |
| 11 | Evaluation of patient care information systems: theory
and practice
Arjen Stoop, Heather Heathfield, Marleen de Mul and Marc Berg | 206 |
| | Index | 230 |