

ACTION RESEARCH

Gender Dimension of Skills Development in Vocational Training in Thailand

by

Busakorn Suriyasarn
Bernadette P. Resurreccion

Ministry of Labour (MOL)

Ministry of Social Development and Human Security
(MOSDHS)

International Labour Office (ILO)

Asian Institute of Technology (AIT)

CONTENTS

	Page
Preface	i
Acknowledgements	ii
Executive Summary	ix
Chapter
1 Introduction	1
1.1 Research Rationale	1
1.2 Research Methodology	2
1.3 Organization of the Report	4
2 Labour Markets, Economic Change and Skills Development in Thailand: A Gender Perspective	7
2.1 The Boom and Crisis Years: An Overview	7
2.1.1 Sources and mechanisms of growth	7
2.1.2 The financial crisis of 1997: Some gender effects	9
2.2 Characteristics of the Thai Labour Market: Where the Women Are	13
2.2.1 Women in the manufacturing sector	15
2.2.2 Women in agriculture and services	17
2.2.3 Women in the informal sector	19
2.3 Education and Skills Development, the Labour Market and Gender Trends	23
2.3.1 Gender differentials in formal education	24
2.3.2 Skills development, technical and vocational training for women	27
3 Skills Development Systems of the Department of Skill Development and Department of Public Welfare	31
3.1 Department of Skill Development (DSD)	31
3.1.1 DSD vocational training programmes and skill development systems	33
3.2 Department of Public Welfare (DPW)	34
3.2.1 DPW vocational training programmes and skill development systems	36
3.3 1997 Economic Crisis and Unemployment Alleviation by Ministry of Labour and Social Welfare (MOLSW)	37

3.3.1	The Ministry of Labour and Social Welfare unemployment alleviation policy measures	38
3.4	Women's Participation in Vocational Training Systems of DSD and DPW	42
3.4.1	DSD skills development for women, children and the disabled	46
3.4.2	DPW skills development for women and disadvantaged groups	47
3.5	Review of Gender Equity in Vocational Training Programmes of DSD and DPW	49
4	Field Assessment of Training Programmes and Practices	53
4.1	Field Assessment of Training Practices	53
4.1.1	Field research methodology	53
4.1.2	Good practices	55
4.1.3	Standard practices	59
4.1.4	Cultural-specific practices	61
4.2	Training Premises	64
4.2.1	General observations	64
4.2.2	Specific observations	67
4.3	Trainers	68
4.3.1	Trainers' demographic profile	68
4.3.2	Attitudes of trainers on women and men, and their perceptions on hill tribe trainees in employment and skill training	71
4.4	Trainees	74
4.4.1	Trainees' demographic profile	74
4.4.2	Trainees' access to training, expectations of benefits of training programmes and future plans	79
4.4.3	Trainees' views towards gender roles in employment skill training	82
4.5	Graduates	87
4.5.1	Graduates' demographic profile	88
4.5.2	Graduates' work paths after training	90
4.5.3	Skill relevance and employment opportunities for graduates	95
4.5.4	Tracer study observations	99
5	Lessons Learned and Policy Recommendations	101
5.1	Lessons Learned	101
5.1.1	Summary of findings	101
5.1.2	Analysis of training practices	103
5.2	Challenges and Barriers to Equal Access to DSD and DPW Vocational Training Services	104

5.2.1	Institutional gender bias	105
5.2.2	Inadequate responsiveness to training needs	106
5.2.3	Philosophical and attitudinal bias	106
5.3	Policy Recommendations	107
References		111
Annexes
Annex 1	Policy Formulation Workshop	117
Annex 2	Discussion Guidelines for Discussion on Policy Formulation to Promote Gender Equality in Access to Skill Training and Development	118
Annex 3.1	Research Tool 2: Questionnaire for Person in Charge of Training Policies and Programmes of Concerned Institution	119
Annex 3.2	Research Tool 3: Interview Guide for Trainers	128
Annex 3.3	Research Tool 4: Focussed Group Discussion (FGD) for Current Trainees / Students	134
Annex 3.4	Research Tool 5: Questionnaire for Tracer Study of Graduates	140
Annex 3.5	Research Tool 6: Guide for Site Visit of Training Premises	149
Lists of Boxes, Figures and Tables
Boxes
Box 2.1	What is reproductive work?	11
Box 2.2	What is the informal sector?	20
Box 3.1	Responsibilities of the Department of Skill Development	31
Box 3.2	Target groups of the Department of Public Welfare	34
Box 3.3	Unemployment alleviation measures implemented by the Ministry of Labour and Social Welfare following the 1997 crisis	39
Box 3.4	Objectives and activities of the Thai Skill Development Project under the Asian Development Bank loan	42
Box 3.5	Responsibilities of Women and Child Skill Development Coordination Division, Department of Skill Development	46
Box 3.6	Measures to promote skills development for women, children and the disabled of the Women and Child Skill Development Coordination Division, Department of Skill Development (1998)	46

Box 3.7	Responsibilities and target groups of the Occupational Assistance Division (OAD), Department of Public Welfare	48
---------	--	----

Figures

Figure 2.1	Thailand's real GDP growth (per cent) 1988-2000	7
Figure 2.2	Pathways of the Asian financial crisis to social / gender impacts	10
Figure 2.3	Percentage of average monthly expenditure of households for medical care and education	12
Figure 2.4	Changes in the employment of women and men in different sectors, from 1997 to 1999	12
Figure 2.5	Per cent share of women and men in the labour force by industry, last quarter, 2000	14
Figure 2.6	Percentages of Thai population by educational attainment in 1999	24
Figure 3.1	Number of trainees in the DSD standard vocational training programmes during 1995-2001	32
Figure 3.2	Number of vocational trainees in DPW welfare and vocational training institutions during 1990-2000	35
Figure 3.3	Unemployment rates of youth and adults during crisis years (1997-2000)	37
Figure 3.4	Percentages of male and female vocational trainees in DSD vocational training programmes in Fiscal Years 1995, 1998, 1999, 2000 and 2001	43
Figure 4.1	Education of trainees in DSD and DPW institutions	77
Figure 4.2	Trainees' family income	78
Figure 4.3	Comparison of incomes of DSD and DPW graduates	95
Figure 4.4	Income comparison of male and female graduates	98

Tables

Table 1.1	Training institutions selected for action research	4
Table 2.1	Changes in government expenditure programmes	11
Table 2.2	Total Employment by industry and average monthly wage rate of women and men in the municipal area of Thailand, third quarter, 2000	14
Table 2.3	Per cent changes in labour market indicators during the crisis for women and men	15
Table 2.4	Employment of Women and Men in Top Seven Manufacturing Establishments, 1999	17

Table 2.5	Women and men's employment in the services sector as per cent share of total labour force and comparative average monthly wage	18
Table 2.6	International tourist arrivals, 2000-2001	19
Table 2.7	Number of female and male homeworkers aged 13 years and over by type of work, whole kingdom	21
Table 2.8	Change in income of male and female heads of enterprises in the informal sector, Bangkok, 1986 (baht per month)	21
Table 2.9	Women and men in homework and their educational attainment	22
Table 2.10	Percentage distribution of female and male students in the formal school system by educational level, 1996 and 1998	25
Table 2.11	Enrollment rates and educational attainment of women and men by percentage	25
Table 2.12	Employed women and men in manufacturing and services by level of education, 1998 (in thousands)	26
Table 2.13a	Participation in courses in technical and vocational education under the Ministry of Education by women and men by percentage	28
Table 2.13b	Participation in courses of private vocational institutes by women and men by percentage	28
Table 3.1	Number of vocational trainees in DSD regular training programmes during fiscal years 1995-2001	32
Table 3.2	Number of vocational trainees in DPW welfare and vocational training institutions during 1990-2000	35
Table 3.3	Unemployment rates of youth and adults during crisis years (1997-2000)	38
Table 3.4	Budget allocation of MOLSW to unemployment alleviation programmes (October 1998-September 1999)	40
Table 3.5	International loans to the Ministry of Labour and Social Welfare	41
Table 3.6	Number of male and female vocational trainees in DSD vocational training programmes in fiscal years 1995, 1998, 1999, 2000 and 2001	44
Table 3.7	Number of vocational trainees in DSD standard vocational training programmes during October 1999-August 2000	44
Table 3.8	Occupational paths of former women trainees in the Creating New Life for Rural Women Project (1993-2000)	45
Table 4.1	Institution-based pre-employment training courses provided by DSD's Chiang Mai Women's Friendly Centre	56
Table 4.2	Training facilities assessment	66
Table 4.3	Courses taught by male and female trainers interviewed	68

Table 4.4	Trainers and levels of women's participation in their training courses	69
Table 4.5	Employment status of trainers by sex	69
Table 4.6	Trainers' educational attainment by sex	70
Table 4.7	Breakdowns of trainees by training institution and by sex	75
Table 4.8	Employment status of trainees	76
Table 4.9	Trainees' education by sex	76
Table 4.10	Trainees' education by training institution	77
Table 4.11	Trainees' family income by department	78
Table 4.12	Occupations of trainees' fathers and mothers	79
Table 4.13	Information channels to training used by trainees	80
Table 4.14	Expectations of benefits of training by trainees	81
Table 4.15	Trainees' needs for additional training	81
Table 4.16	Job goals of trainees	82
Table 4.17	Trainees' views on gender differences in skills performance by sex	83
Table 4.18	Trainees' views on gender differences in skills performance by religion	84
Table 4.19	Trainees' agreement with promotion of women's participation in traditionally male skill training courses	84
Table 4.20	Trainees' reported knowledge or experience of sexual harassment	85
Table 4.21	Breakdowns of graduates by training institution	88
Table 4.22	Training courses of graduates by sex	89
Table 4.23	Educational attainment of graduates by sex	89
Table 4.24	Comparison of educational attainment of highland and lowland graduates	90
Table 4.25	Reported paid working hours of graduates by sex	91
Table 4.26	Types of employment of graduates by sex	91
Table 4.27	Types of work of highland and lowland graduates	92
Table 4.28	Income levels of graduates by work type	92
Table 4.29	Work regularity of graduates by institution	93
Table 4.30	Income levels of graduates by sex	94
Table 4.31	Usefulness of skills perceived by graduates by institution	96
Table 4.32	skill training and increase in employment opportunity perceived by graduates by institution	97
Table 4.33	Degrees of contribution to family incomes by graduates	97
Table 4.34	Principal family income earners identified by graduates	98