

The Synergos Institute

Financing Development in Southeast Asia

Opportunities for Collaboration and Sustainability

endowments

financial sustainability

Thailand

earned income

official development assistance

debt swaps

Indonesia

corporate philanthropy

social investment

civil society

the Philippines

foundations

grantmaking

lending

Contents

List of Acronyms	vii
Preface	ix
1 Introduction: The Quest for Financial Sustainability, Natasha Amott	1
2 Options for Financial Sustainability: Collaboration Between Civil Society and Development Agencies in Southeast Asia, David Winder	19
3 Unfinished Business: ODA-Civil Society Partnerships in Thailand, Gary Suwannarat	57
4 The Rise of Philippine NGOs in Managing Development Assistance, Consuelo Katrina A. Lopa	81
5 Building and Managing Endowments: Lessons from Southeast Asia, Eugenio M. Gonzales	99
6 Corporate Resources for Local Development in the Philippines: The Jaime V. Ongpin Foundation, Inc., Ernesto Garilao & Gil Tuparan	125
7 Building an Endowment for Biodiversity Conservation in Indonesia: The Case of KEHATI, Sarah Maxim, Ismid Hadad & Suzanty Sitorus	151
8 Earned Income for Financial Sustainability in Indonesia: The Dian Desa Foundation, Rustam Ibrahim	175
Author Biographies	197
Profiles of Foundations in Case Studies	205
About Synergos	211