

TROPICAL & SUBTROPICAL TREES

A WORLDWIDE ENCYCLOPAEDIC GUIDE

Thames & Hudson

MARGARET BARWICK

CONTENTS

Foreword	ii
Prologue	iii
Acknowledgments	iv
Introduction
How to use this book	vi
Explanation of terms	vi
Abbreviations	vii
Colour key	vii
Plant hardiness zones	viii
The origins of trees	xi
Factors affecting the growth of tropical and subtropical trees	xii
Plant classification	xv
How to identify trees	xix
PART 1
A–Z listing of tropical and subtropical trees	I
PART 2
Quick reference checklists
Drought-tolerant, evergreen trees	431
Moderately drought-tolerant, evergreen trees	432
Drought-tolerant, deciduous trees	434
Salt-tolerant, evergreen trees	435
Moderately salt-tolerant, evergreen trees	437
Moderately salt-tolerant, deciduous trees	438
Trees for humid shade	439
Trees & their flowers	441
Flowering trees & their seasons	442
Trees & their ornamental or edible fruit	444
Trees valuable for the environment	445
Trees with special qualities	446
Trees with problems	447
Trees & their shapes	448
Trees for specific planting	450
Appendix: guide to the morphology of leaves, flowers and fruits	452
Glossary	458
Bibliography	466
Photography credits	469
Index	470