

World Disasters Report

Focus on community resilience

International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies

Contents

International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies	inside front cover
Acknowledgements	2
Introduction	8

Section One Focus on community resilience

Chapter 1	From risk to resilience – helping communities cope with crisis	10
Box 1.1	Definitions of resilience	12
Box 1.2	Part 1: Afghan farmers recover more quickly than expected	14
Box 1.2	Part 2: Afghan children dispel myths of war trauma	15
Box 1.3	Gujarat's poor invest to recover	21
Box 1.4	Tuti islanders fight floods together	24
Box 1.5	Argentine floods: state aid saps resilience	28
Chapter 2	Heatwaves: the developed world's hidden disaster	36
Box 2.1	Heatwaves: facts at a glance	38
Box 2.2	Who is most at risk?	45
Box 2.3	Cold waves in the UK: the other extreme	47
Box 2.4	Heatwave exposes public health failures	48
Box 2.5	Prevention tips in a heatwave	51
Chapter 3	Harnessing local capacities in rural India	56
Box 3.1	Scaling up disaster resilience beyond the community	64
Box 3.2	Mobile Biodiversity Festival	68
Map	India	58

Chapter 4	Bam sends warning to reduce future earthquake risks	78
Box 4.1	Iranian sniffer dogs save more lives	86
Box 4.2	Hope amid the dust and destruction	88
Box 4.3	Iranian Red Crescent helps prepare public for disasters	93
Box 4.4	Tehran time bomb	95
Box 4.5	Sticks and carrots: developmental solutions to disaster	97
Figure 4.1	Iran: shaken by a century of quakes	82
Map	Iran	81

Chapter 5	Building community resilience to disaster in the Philippines	100
Box 5.1	Six steps towards increasing community resilience	105
Box 5.2	Motivating local people to participate	109
Box 5.3	Integrating disaster resilience and development	116
Map	The Philippines	100

Chapter 6	AIDS: Communities pulling out of downward spiral	120
Box 6.1	Orphans suffer neglect and abuse	124
Box 6.2	Selling cows, selling sex	127
Box 6.3	Alarm bells ring in China	130
Box 6.4	Ruth Musiego – a positive life	135
Box 6.5	How can Swaziland cope with HIV/AIDS?	139

Chapter 7	Surviving in the slums	142
Box 7.1	Rational long-term resilience in Mumbai	149
Box 7.2	Building resilience around a shared livelihood	153
Box 7.3	Slum communities and municipality collaborate in Santo Domingo	155

Section Two

Tracking the system

Chapter 8	Disaster data: key trends and statistics	160
Box 8.1	EM-DAT: a specialized disaster database	169
Box 8.2	US Committee for Refugees	170
Figure 8.1	Number of reported 'natural' and technological disasters (1994-2003)	161
Figure 8.2	Deadliest disasters of the decade (1994-2003)	162
Figure 8.3	Average number of deaths per reported disaster (1994-2003)	164
Figure 8.4	Average economic damage per reported disaster (1994-2003)	164
Figure 8.5	ODA net disbursement in (US $ million) 1993-2002	165
Figure 8.6	ODA net disbursement in (US $ million) 2002	166
Figure 8.7	ODA – The five biggest DAC donors'	166
Figure 8.8	ODA as percentage of DAC donors' GNI in 2002	167
Figure 8.9	Emergency/distress relief by DAC donors' in 2002	168
Table 1	Total number of reported disasters by continent and by year (1994 to 2003)	173
Table 2	Total number of people reported killed, by continent and by year (1994 to 2003)	174
Table 3	Total number of people reported affected by continent and by year (1994 to 2003) in thousands	175
Table 4	Total amount of disaster estimated damage, by continent and by year (1994 to 2003) in millions of US dollars	176
Table 5	Total number of reported disasters, by type of phenomenon and by year (1994 to 2003)	177
Table 6	Total number of people reported killed, by type of phenomenon and by year (1994 to 2003)	178
Table 7	Total number of people reported affected, by type of phenomenon and by year (1994 to 2003) in thousands	179

Table 8	Total amount of disaster estimated damage, by continent and by year (1994 to 2003) in millions of US dollars	180
Table 9	Total number of reported disasters, by continent and by type of phenomenon (1994 to 2003)	181
Table 10	Total number of people reported killed, by continent and by type of phenomenon (1994 to 2003)	182
Table 11	Total number of people reported affected, by continent and by type of phenomenon (1994 to 2003) in thousands	183
Table 12	Total amount of disaster estimated damage, by continent and by type of phenomenon (1994 to 2003) in millions of US dollars	184
Table 13	Total number of people reported killed and affected by disasters, by country (1984 to 1993; 1994 to 2003; and 2003)	185
Table 14	Refugees and asylum seekers by country/territory of origin (1997 to 2003)	193
Table 15	Refugees and asylum seekers by host country/territory (1997 to 2003)	196
Table 16	Significant populations of internally displaced people (1997 to 2003)	200

Chapter 9 Reaching out across the world 202

Annex International Conference prioritises risk reduction 220

Index 226

Fundamental Principles inside back cover