

THE LIBRARIES UNLIMITED
LIBRARY MANAGEMENT COLLECTION

Managing Information Technology

A HANDBOOK FOR SYSTEMS LIBRARIANS

Patricia Ingersoll and John Culshaw

Contents

List of Illustrations	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
Introduction and Rationale	xiii
Some Historical Notes	ix
1—Planning	1
Strategic Planning	3
Policy Development	4
Budget	7
Planning Tools	7
Writing a Technology Plan	10
Project Management	10
Statistics and Decision Making	11
Integrated Library System Migration	13
Local Standards	17
Replacement Cycles	18
Disaster Preparedness and Recovery	20
2—Staffing and Reporting Lines	23
The Systems Librarian	25
Teams and Hierarchies	28
Organization Charts	29
Centralization and Branches	30
Telecommuting	33
Recruiting	34
Job Descriptions and Performance Reviews	36
3—Communication	39
Collegiality	41
Supporting Library Patrons	42
Professional Reading	43
Research and Scholarship	44
Leadership	45
Stress	46

4—Interorganizational Relationships	49
Stakeholders	49
National Organizations	50
Vendors	51
5—Development	55
Technology Fees	56
Grants	57
6—Service and Support	59
Service Orientation	60
Help Desk Services	61
Service Standards and Measures	64
7—Training	67
Training Approaches	68
Campus Resources	69
Professional Organizations and User Groups	70
Professional Education	70
Staff Development and Continuing Education	73
8—Daily and Periodic Operations	77
Prototype, Test, Configure, and Deploy	79
Hardware Maintenance	81
Printing Issues	83
CD-ROM and DVD	84
Software Upgrades and Monitoring	86
License Control	87
Server Management	89
Data Protection and Backups	91
Security	92
Departmental Procedures	95
Logs and Record Keeping	96
Inventory	96
Statistical Reports and Analyses	97
Programming	98
Link Checking	99
9—Space	101
Facilities	101
Infrastructure	103
LAN, Phone, and Other Cabling	105
Wireless Computing	106
Ergonomics and Safety	107

10—Research and New Technologies	109
Teaching and Learning in a Web-based World	111
Mission-Critical Technologies	111
Evaluation of New Technologies	112
Impacts and Applications of International Standards	112
Portals	115
Digital Library Initiatives	116
Mobile Computing	120
Web Logs	122
Videoconferencing	123
Interactive Chat	124
Intranets	125
Document Delivery	125
11—Summary	127
Trends in Technology	128
Trends in Higher Education	130
Resource Materials	133
Account Policy	134
Example of a LAN Account Policy	134
Appropriate Use Policy	135
Automation Consultants	137
Business Continuity Plan Questionnaire	138
Computer Census Form	149
Example of a Pre-Installation Worksheet	149
Cleaning Up Your Hard Drive	149
Computer Equipment Replacement Plan	151
Controlled Circulation Publication List	154
Decision-making Model	155
ILS Vendor Information	157
Job Description Form	158
Job Evaluation Form	159
Library Technology Plan	164
I. Electronic Content Acquisition	164
II. Electronic Content Creation	165
III. Shared IT Infrastructure Services	167
IV. Scholarly Collaboration	172
Appendices	172
Online Help Page	173
Password Policy and Instructions	174
Professional Reading	175
Selected Acronyms	176
Server Configuration Reference Sheet	178
Supported Software Policy	179

viii Contents

Web Site URLs	180
References	183
Additional Reading	191
Index	193