

MASTERING BUSINESS IN ASIA

ENTREPRENEURSHIP

Chris Boulton
Patrick Turner

Contents

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| Acknowledgments                           | ix  |
| Preface                                   | xi  |
| Section I Introduction                    | 1   |
| 1 Entrepreneurs and the Asian Context     | 3   |
| 2 Top-of-mind Issues and Other Themes     | 21  |
| 3 Entrepreneurs and Opportunity           | 35  |
| Section II The Entrepreneur and Cash      | 57  |
| 4 Case Study: Start-up in Bangalore       | 59  |
| 5 Raising Start-up Capital                | 79  |
| 6 The Check is in the Post: Managing Cash | 117 |
| 7 Government and Entrepreneurship         | 149 |
| Section III Growing Pains                 | 167 |
| 8 Managing Growth                         | 169 |

|                               |   |     |
|-------------------------------|---|-----|
| 9                             | Raising Expansion Capital                 | 187 |
| 10                            | Going International                       | 215 |
| 11                            | Let's Go IPO                              | 239 |
| Section IV Themes of Maturity |   | 265 |
| 12                            | Handling Succession                       | 267 |
| 13                            | Releasing Entrepreneurial Potential: MBOs | 287 |
| Section V Conclusion          |   | 327 |
| 14                            | A Look Forward                            | 329 |
| Index                         |   | 343 |