

WEB SITES

SIMPLE:

organizing content-rich web sites into simple structures

STEFAN MUMAW

Introduction 6

1 Content Organization for Simpler Design 9

Redefining Content Presentation / Premonition Records 10

Designing with Few Assets / MacArthur Park 16

How to Communicate Just Enough / NextRx 22

Who Needs Copy / Rob Allen Photography 28

Dissecting the Content / Paul Edward Fleming 34

Designing without Content / Orange County Teachers Federal Credit Union 40

Storyboarding the User Experience / Villa Mt. Eden 46

Purposeful Content / How It Works 52

Highlighting Strong Content / John Coltrane 58

2 Using Design Principles to Encourage Visual Minimalism 65

Working with an Abbreviated Time Frame / New Tilt 66

Hundreds of Items Organized into One Clean Design / Arhaus 72

Using Navigation as the Primary Design Element / Axiom Studio 78

Design as a Subtractive Process / Red Path Photography 84

Clean, Eye-Catching Site Design Draws in Users / Golf in Austria 90

Using Color to Aid Visual Simplicity / VenusDesign 96

3 Simplifying the User Experience 103

Designing for the Design Firm / 300 Feet Out 104

Designing for a Documentary / Becoming Human 110

The Designer as Client / Accordion 116

Digital Storytelling / Birdcam 122

Design That's Driven by a Company's Philosophies / Factor Design 128

Communication as a Two-Way Street / The North Face 134

Letting the Site Map Evolve / Barn! Advertising 140

How to Inform Intelligently / BriteSmile 146

Remaining Objective about Personal Design / Kilosite 152

Directory 158

About the Author 160