

fourth edition

BROADCAST NEWS

WRITING, REPORTING, AND PRODUCING

TED WHITE

Contents

Foreword	xvii
Preface	xix
Acknowledgments	xxvii
Introduction	xxix
A Changing Industry	xxx
Is Journalism for You?	xxxi
What Role to Play?	xxxi
Your College Education	xxxii
Internships	xxxiii
Your First Job	xxxiii
Responsibility and Accuracy	xxxiii
1 Broadcast News Writing Mechanics	1
Some Basics	1
Correcting Copy	1
Slugs	2
The Split Page	3
Avoiding Abbreviations	3
Avoiding Split Words and Sentences	3
Punctuation	4
Names and Titles	4
Middle Names and Initials	6
Foreign Names	6
Ages	7
Marital Status	7
Race	7
Numbers	8
Timing Stories	9
Review Questions	9
Exercises	10
2 Broadcast News Writing Style	11
Rewriting Wire Copy	11
Conversational Style	12
Contractions	12
Reading Your Copy Aloud	13
Avoiding Information Overload	13
Avoiding Relative Clauses	15

Eliminating Long Words	16
Conjunctions	17
Prepositions	17
Pronouns	17
Modifying Phrases	18
Avoiding Clichés	18
Writing What You Mean	20
Good Grammar and Some Exceptions	20
Summary	21
Review Questions	21
Exercises	22
3 More Style Rules	23
Verbs	23
Present Tense	23
Present Perfect Tense	24
Mixing Tenses	24
Active Verbs	24
Says Is a Good Verb	25
Strong Verbs	25
Limiting Use of Adverbs and Adjectives	25
Attribution	26
Using Quotes	26
Expressing Time	27
Looking Ahead	28
Transitions	29
People , Not Persons	30
Summary	30
Review Questions	30
Exercises	31
4 Writing Broadcast Copy	32
Leads	32
The “Five W’s and H Rule”	32
Hard and Soft Leads	33
The “Right” Emotion	34
The Quote Lead	35
The Shotgun Lead	36
The Suspense Lead	36
The Delayed Lead	38
Negative Leads	39
Updating and Reworking the Lead	39
Constructing the Rest of the Story	40
Summary	41
Review Questions	41
Exercises	41
5 Color: The Key to Good Writing	43
Color Should Be Natural	43
Emulate the Best	45
Kuralt on the Road	46

“A Postcard from Nebraska”	49
Crisp and Clear	52
Use Your Senses	53
Color Comes in Many Shades	60
Colorful Obituaries	61
Frederick, Ellerbee, and Aaron	64
Murrow and His “Boys”	70
“This Is London”	71
“Permit Me to Tell You”	74
“The Fault, Dear Brutus”	76
Eric Severeid: Writing with Class	77
Good Things from Local Stations	78
Summary	86
Review Questions	87
Exercises	87
6 Radio News	88
You Need A Scorecard	89
All News Radio Stations	93
Good News Teams Are Also Found in Small Places	94
Your Audience	96
Organizing Material	96
Writing from the Back	97
The Lead Story	98
The Rest of the Newscast	99
Localizing the News	99
Story Length	100
Actualities	100
Wraparounds	100
Lead-Ins	101
Teases	102
Headlines	102
Pad Copy	103
Back Timing	103
Summary	103
Review Questions	104
Exercises	104
7 Writing for the Television Newscast	106
Combining Words and Pictures	106
Sound Bites	106
The Television Newswriter	107
Read Stories	107
Voice-overs	107
The Split Page	109
Video Instructions	109
Sound on Tape	111
Lead-Ins	112
Headlines and Teases	113
A Team Effort	114
Summary	115

Review Questions	115
Exercises	115
8 Delivering the News	117
Credibility	117
One-Way Communication	118
Getting Help with Your Delivery	119
Dialects	119
Listening to Yourself	120
Getting Pronunciation Help	121
Pacing	124
Marking Copy	126
Characteristics of Successful Anchors	128
Ratings Wars	128
Cosmetics	129
Summary	132
Review Questions	132
Exercises	133
9 Finding the News	134
The Wires	134
Television Satellite Feeds	135
The Internet	136
Newspapers	136
Monitoring Radios	137
Making Phone Calls	138
Stringers	138
Tipsters	138
Employee Input	139
Sounding the Alarm	140
Developing Story Ideas	142
Interaction	142
Insights	143
Assignment Boards	144
Summary	144
Review Questions	145
Exercises	145
10 Broadcast News Reporting	146
Basic Skills	146
Accuracy	147
Election 2000: It's Better to Be Right than First	147
New Problems in 2004	149
The O. J. Simpson Trial	150
News Judgment	152
Curiosity	154
Concern and Caring	154
Persistence	155
Aggressiveness	155
Fairness	155
Diversity	156

Covering Stories about Gays and Lesbians	158
Staying Well Informed	161
Research	161
Manners and Sensitivity	162
Working with Colleagues	164
Summary	164
Review Questions	164
Exercises	165
11 Reporting Assignments	166
Fires	166
Accidents	169
Crime	170
Rape	171
Be a Watchdog	172
The Courts	173
Criminal Courts	173
Reporter Access	174
Civil Courts	174
Demonstrations	175
Riots	175
Disasters	176
The Terrorist Attacks of 9-11	177
Trying to Find a CBS Crew	182
Women Journalists at Ground Zero	183
How Not to Spend the Last Day of a Vacation	186
Just Go . . . Go . . . Go!	187
Oklahoma City Bombing	188
The 2004 Tsunami	190
Tragedies	192
Violence	192
Schoolyard Shootings	193
Media Invade Small Community	194
Criticism of Media	195
Why Such Killings?	198
Don't Forget the Victims	199
Was the Reporting Excessive?	199
Violent Stories Also Cause Stress for Journalists	200
The Waco, Texas, Conflict	201
Was News Coverage Fair?	202
Government Control of Media	203
Could Media Involvement Have Changed the Outcome?	204
War Reporting: The Rules Have Changed	204
Embedded Journalists	205
The Private Lynch Fiasco	207
Are Reporters Acting too Much Like Soldiers?	209
Cheerleaders for the Military?	209
Journalist Deaths in Iraq	210
The Tip of the Spear	213
Beats	220
Advancing the Story	222

Avoiding the Pack	222
Keeping in Touch	223
Establishing Rapport with the Cameraperson	223
One-Person Band	224
Convergence	225
Quality Suffers	227
Summary	228
Review Questions	228
Exercises	228
12 Covering Planned Events	229
News Conferences	229
Hard Questions	232
Local Government	233
Political Campaigns	236
Putting Comments into Perspective	239
Feature Stories	240
Summary	244
Review Questions	245
Exercises	245
13 Reporting Live	246
Organizing Thoughts	246
Ad-Libbing	250
The Challenges of Electronic News Gathering	251
Keeping Cool	254
Memorizing and Delivering Live Reports	254
Changing Lens Shots	255
Summary	255
Review Questions	256
Exercises	256
14 Putting the Television Story Together	257
The Package	257
At the Scene	257
Taking Notes	258
Opening the Story	258
Good Pictures	258
Good Writing	259
Organizing the Story	264
Selecting Sound	265
Working with the Video Editor	266
The Voiceover	266
The Voiceover-Sound on Tape	267
Reporter Involvement	268
Summary	269
Review Questions	269
Exercises	270
15 The Interview	271
Preparing for the Interview	271
Phrasing Questions Carefully	273

Avoiding Leading Questions	273
Listening Carefully	273
Warming Up the Head	274
The Tough Questions	274
The Surprise Questions	275
Questions to Ask Before the Interview	276
Keeping Control of the Interview	276
Asking Enough Questions	277
“Did I Forget Something?”	278
Off the Record	278
Curbing Nods and Smiles	279
The Phone Interview	279
Checking Facts	280
Some Other Tips	280
Check out Charlie	280
Summary	282
Review Questions	282
Exercises	283
16 Collecting Information from Documents	284
Public Records and the “Sunshine Laws”	284
Filing an FOIA Request	285
Supporting Video	302
A Neglected Tool	304
The Privacy Act	305
Government Reports	305
Business Publications and Indexes	306
Trade Publications	306
Database Services	306
Great for Running Stories	307
Other Public Files	307
Police Records	308
Court Records	308
Birth and Death Records	308
Licenses	309
Land Records	309
Financial Records	309
Tax Records	310
City Directories	310
Summary	310
Review Questions	311
Exercises	311
17 Computer-Assisted Reporting for Broadcast	312
by Brant Houston
The Three Basic Tools	312
Online Resources	313
Search Engines and Guides	313
Finding People	314
Backgrounding Businesses	315

Information on Disasters	316
Covering Beats	317
Downloading Databases	318
Spreadsheets	319
Using Downloaded Data	320
Database Managers	321
Searching	321
Summarizing	322
Comparing and Matching	324
Building Your Own Database	324
Acquiring Data	325
CAR Stories	325
Resources Needed	326
Summary	327
Review Questions	327
Exercises	327
18 Developing Sources	328
Tips	328
Confidentiality	328
Accuracy of Sources	329
Gaining Confidence	330
Making Friends	330
Leaks	331
The Clarence Thomas Case	332
Trial Balloons	334
Authoritative or Informed Sources	334
Background Briefings	334
Summary	335
Review Questions	335
Exercises	335
19 Specialty Reporting	336
Investigative Reporting	336
The Salt Lake City Scandal	337
Environmental Reporting	341
Business Reporting	350
Health and Medical Reporting	352
Consumer Reporting	355
Sports Reporting	357
Weather Reporting	361
Summary	366
Review Questions	366
Exercises	367
20 Ethics	368
Objectivity: Does the Media Have a Bias?	368
Is the Bias to the Left or the Right?	370
Gratuities	371
Conflict of Interest	372
Accuracy and Responsibility	372

The Jason Blair Scandal	373
USA Today Also Has a Major Scandal	375
Libel	376
Defenses	377
False Light	377
Boundaries	378
Controversial Techniques	378
Hidden Cameras and Microphones	380
Case Studies Involving Ethical Issues	381
Case Study 1: A Mercy Killing on TV	381
Case Study 2: Food Lion Sues ABC	382
Case Study 3: ABC Stings the Cops	384
Case Study 4: CNN Retracts Its Story	386
Case Study 5: CBS News Also Retracts a Story	387
Other Stories That Backfired	389
Ambush Interviews	390
Reenactments	391
Crime-Stoppers	392
Staging	392
Dateline Rigs a Truck	393
CBS Also Blows Up a Truck	393
“Unnatural” Sound	394
Video Deception	394
Improper Editing	395
Avoiding Jump Cuts	395
Inflating the News	397
Will the Real Reporter Please Stand Up?	397
Summary	398
Review Questions	399
Exercises	399
21 More Ethical Issues	400
Cameras in the Courtroom	400
Pros and Cons	401
Do Cameras Influence Witnesses?	402
The Fourth Amendment	403
Don Hewitt Has Second Thoughts	405
Supreme Court Eases Rules—A Bit	406
Checkbook Journalism	406
The Fairness Doctrine	407
Invasion of Privacy	408
Civic Journalism	409
Summary	413
Review Questions	413
Exercises	414
22 Tabloid Journalism	415
The Clinton-Lewinsky Scandal	415
Unconfirmed Reports Abound	417
Many Ways of Saying the Source Is Unreliable	418

White House Scolds The Wall Street Journal	418
Media Gripped by Sniper Obsession	419
The JonBenét Ramsey Murder Case	422
A Young Congressional Intern Dies and a Congressman Loses His Job	426
A Star Pro Basketball Player Is Accused of Sexual Assault	430
Are News Standards Dwindling?	431
23 Producing	433
The Producers	433
The Executive Producer	433
The Line Producer (Show Producer)	434
Associate Producers	434
Field Producers	435
The Staff Meetings	435
A Busy News City	435
Who's the Real Boss?	436
The Golden People	437
Philosophy	437
Ethics	437
The Rundown (Lineup)	438
Peaks and Valleys	439
Rhythm and Flow	440
A Difference of Opinion	441
More Producing Tips	442
Producers Need Good Writing Skills	442
Enthusiasm	444
Energy	445
Still Pictures	445
Live Shots	445
Back Timing	446
Bright Future	447
Summary	448
Review Questions	448
Exercises	448
24 Using the Hardware	449
Checking the Equipment	449
Batteries and AC Power	449
Tripods	450
Earphones	451
Filters	451
White Balancing	451
Mixed Light	452
Focusing	453
Time Coding	454
Shooting Techniques	454
Cover Footage	456
Establishing Shots	456

Sequential Shooting	457
Shooting Enough Footage	457
Recording Natural Sound	457
Videophone Technology	458
25 The Job Search in a Changing Industry	467
The Future of Broadcast News	468
The New Players	471
Demise of Radio News	471
Getting Started	472
“The Corn Fields”	478
Education Is Essential	479
The Job Search	479
The Résumé	481
References	481
Cover Letters	483
Writing Tests	483
The Job Interview	483
Minority Opportunities	485
Some Final Words	487
Glossary	488
Index	493