

CyberLaw and E-Commerce Regulation

An Entrepreneurial Approach

Sean P. Melvin

Contents

Preface xii

About the Author xviii

UNIT 1 CYBER ENTREPRENEURS, E-COMMERCE, AND THE LAW 1

Chapter 1 Overview of CyberLaw and E-Commerce Business Models 3

- Fundamentals of the Internet 5
 - Background and Brief History of the Internet 5
 - Physical Structure 6
 - Domain Name System 7
- Accessing the Internet 9
 - ISPs, IAPs, and OSPs 9
 - Connecting to the Internet 10
 - Bandwidth 10
 - Wireless Access 12
- The Tech Boom and Entrepreneurism 12
 - Bricks-and-Mortar Shift to E-Commerce 13
- Basic Cyber Entrepreneur and E-Commerce Business Models 14
 - Inherent Risks 14
- Sources of Law Affecting Cyber Entrepreneurs and E-Commerce Firms 14
 - Statutory Law 15
 - Constitutional Law 18
 - Common Law 18
 - The Modern View 18
- Global Perspectives in CyberLaw 19

Chapter 2 Going Online: Formation Issues 25

- Fundamentals of Selecting the Business Entity 25
 - Personal Liability 26
 - Organizational Expenses 26
 - Management and Control 26
 - Capital and Credit 27
 - Tax Treatment 27
- Forms of Business Organizations 30
 - Sole Proprietorship 30
 - Partnerships 30
 - Corporations 31
 - Limited Liability Entities 32
- Joint Ventures: Special Concerns of Cyber Entrepreneurs and E-Commerce Firms 35
 - Corporations as Joint Venture Entities 36
 - Partnerships as Joint Venture Entities 36
 - Limited Liability Companies as Joint Venture Entities 36
- Contribution of Intellectual Property: Unique Issues for Cyber Entrepreneur Joint Ventures 37
 - Joint Ventures and Intellectual Property Licensing 37

Fiduciary Duties of Officers and Directors	38
Business Judgment Rule	39
Global Perspectives in Cyberlaw: Forms of International Business	42

Chapter 3 Taxation of Products and Services 47

The States and Their Sales and Use Taxes	47
Taxation of Mail Order Vendors: A Guideline for Internet Transactions	48
Other Nexus Theories	52
Challenges in the Taxation of Internet Sales and E-Commerce	52
Physical Location	52
Regulating Parties and Goods	53
Commercial and Noncommercial Internet Transmissions	53
The Internet Tax Freedom Act	54
Special Taxation Issues Facing Cyber Entrepreneurs and E-Commerce Firms	55
Taxation of E-Commerce and Internet Sales	55
Internet Access Providers	56
Bricks and Clicks: E-Commerce Relationships	57
The States' Treatment of Transactions and Electronic Content	57
Sales and Use Tax Treatment of Computer Software	58
State Income and Franchise Taxes	58
Global Issues in Cyberlaw: International Taxation of E-Commerce	59
The European Union	59
OECD Report	59
Foreign Tax Incentives	60
Double-Taxation Remedies	61
Foreign Tax Credit and Tax Treaties	61

UNIT 2 INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY LAW 65

Chapter 4 Patents: Legal Protection of Inventions and Processes 67

Viability of a Patent	67
Fundamentals of Patent Law	68
Novelty	68
Nonobviousness	69
Patentable Subject Matter	69
Modern Trends	72
The American Inventors Protection Act	74
Types of Patents	74
Business Method Patents	74
Design Patents	76
Plant Patents	76
From Idea to Patent	76
Party Qualified to File	76
The Patent Application and Examination Process	78
Patent Infringement	79
Literal Infringement	79
Equivalence	79
File Wrapper Estoppel	79
The Public Use Doctrine	82
Remedies and Damages	82
Actual Damages	82
Attorneys' Fees	82

Limitations 83
 Notice 83
 Infringement Defenses 83
 Global Issues in CyberLaw: Intellectual Property 83
 International Patent Law 84

Chapter 5 Protection of Trade Secrets, Trademarks, and Trade Dress 89

Trade Secret Protection 89
 Legal Protection of Trade Secrets 90
 Misappropriation 90
 Economic Espionage Act 91
 Exclusive Rights 92
 Trademarks, Service Marks, and Trade Dress 92
 Business Value of Trademarks 93
 Protection under the Law 93
 Trademark Classification 93
 Acquiring Rights 94
 Applications and the Patent and Trademark Office 95
 Preserving Trademark Protection 96
 Violation of Trademarks 96
 Trademark Infringement 96
 Trademark Dilution 97
 Infringement Defenses 99
 Remedies 100
 Trademarks in Cyberspace 100
 Domain Names, Virtual Kidnapping, and Cybersquatting 100
 Metatags 104
 Framing 104
 Global Perspectives in Cyberlaw 104
 International Protection of Trademarks 104
 The Trademark Law Treaty 105
 Non-TLT Signatories 105
 The European Union 105

Chapter 6 Copyrights 109

Copyright Law 110
 Originality and "Sweat of the Brow" 110
 Evolution of U.S. Copyright Law 112
 Audio Home Recording Act of 1992 112
 Digital Performance Right in Sound Recordings Act of 1995 114
 No Electronic Theft Act of 1997 115
 Digital Millennium Copyright Act of 1998 115
 Copyright Term Extension Act of 1998 and Length of Ownership 117
 Copyrights and Computer Programs 118
 Rights of Copyright Owners 118
 Copyright Protection 118
 Copyright Infringement 122
 Direct 122
 Indirect 122
 RIAA's Plan B—A Scorched Earth Litigation Strategy at the Individual User Level 125
 Vicarious Infringement 126

Remedies	126
Injunctive Relief	126
Damages	127
Attorney's Fees and Costs	127
Criminal Sanctions	127
Copyright Infringement Defenses	127
Fair Use	127
First Sale	130
Public Domain	130
Global Perspectives in Cyberlaw: The Berne Convention and U.S. Isolationism	130

UNIT 3 LEGAL ISSUES OF OPERATION, MANAGEMENT, AND WINDUP OF E-COMMERCE FIRMS 135

Chapter 7 Litigation and Alternative Methods of Dispute Resolution 137

Litigation	137
Phases of Litigation	137
Prelawsuit	138
Pleadings Phase	138
Discovery Phase	142
Pretrial	144
Trial	144
Posttrial Motions and Appeals	145
Collecting the Judgment	145
Alternate Dispute Resolution	146
Fundamentals	146
Methods of Alternate Dispute Resolution	147
Arbitration	149
Mediation and Med-Arb	151
Expert Evaluation	152
Online Dispute Resolution	152
Transactions and Relationships	153
Online Mediation	153
Online Arbitration	153
Global Perspectives in Cyberlaw: International Dispute Resolution	154
International Arbitration	154
International Mediation	156

Chapter 8 Jurisdiction in and out of Cyberspace 159

Jurisdiction	160
Source of Law	160
Personal Jurisdiction	160
Subject Matter	162
Exclusive Jurisdiction and Concurrent Jurisdiction	164
Venue	164
Evolution of Cyber Jurisdiction and E-Commerce	164
Other Views: Narrowing Zippo	167
Global Perspectives in Cyberlaw: International Jurisdiction and the Internet	170
Directive on Electronic Commerce of the European Union	171

Chapter 9 Contracts, Sales, and E-Commerce Transactions 175

Overview of Contract Law	176
Sources of Law	176
Statutory Sources of Law in the Tech Sector	176
Formation of a Contract	177
Agreement	177
Consideration	178
Capacity	181
Legality	181
Statute of Frauds	182
Parol Evidence and Common Law Contracts	183
Performance and Conditions	183
Breach and Remedies	185
Article 2—Contracts for the Sale and Lease of Goods	185
Merchants v. Non-Merchants	186
Article 2A—Leases	186
Forms of Leases	186
Offer	186
Open Terms	186
Acceptance	187
Consideration	187
Statute of Frauds	188
Parol Evidence and the U.C.C.	188
Electronic Contracts	188
UETA	188
UCITA	190

Chapter 10 Torts, Cyber Torts, and Product Liability 197

Torts	197
Cyber Torts	198
Defamation	198
Defenses to Defamation	199
Liability of Publishers	199
Other Intentional Cyber Torts	202
Trespass	202
Negligence	205
Hypothetical Negligence Case	205
Defenses	206
Strict Liability for Products in the Technology Sector	207
Product Liability and Value-Added Resellers in the Tech Sector	207

Chapter 11 Raising Capital and Regulation of Securities 213

Sources of Capital	213
Equity Instruments	213
Debt Instruments	215
Securities Law	218
Security Defined	218
Federal Securities Regulation	220
The Securities Act of 1933	221
Exemptions from the '33 Act	221
The Securities Act of 1934	223

Contents CyberLaw and E-Commerce Regulation

Insider Trading	223
State Regulation of Securities: Blue Sky Laws	223
Abuses in Litigation: Amendments to the Securities Acts	224
Securities Litigation Uniform Standards Act of 1998	224
Technology's Impact on Raising Capital	224
Marketing Securities over the Internet	225
New Securities and the Internet	227
Federal Regulation	227
State Regulation	229
Public Offerings of Securities on the Web	229
A Streaming Road Show	230
Online Offerings of Exempt Securities	231
Trading on the Secondary Market in Cyberspace	231
Antifraud Laws, Cyber Entrepreneurs, and E-Commerce	233
Antifraud and the Cyber Entrepreneur	234

Chapter 12 Antitrust Law and Technology 239

Antitrust Statutes	239
The Sherman Act: Per Se Violations and the Rule of Reason	240
Horizontal Restraints among Competitors	241
Price Fixing	241
Allocation of Markets or Customers	242
Boycotts: Concerted Refusal to Deal	243
Trade Associations	245
Vertical Restraints	246
Monopolization	249
The Microsoft Case	250
Microsoft on Appeal	253
The Clayton Act	255
The Robinson-Patman Act	256

Chapter 13 Bankruptcy, Dissolution, and Windup 261

Bankruptcy Law	261
Chapter 7: Liquidation	262
Steps in a Chapter 7 Proceeding	262
Chapter 11: Reorganization	268
Steps of a Chapter 11 Proceeding	268
Chapter 13: Consumer Adjustment Bankruptcy	270
Bankruptcy and E-Commerce	270
Dissolution and Windup	271
Dissolution as an Alternative to Bankruptcy	271
Dissolution of Partnerships	271
Dissolution of Corporations	273
Windup	278

UNIT 4 HUMAN RESOURCES AND OTHER GOVERNMENT REGULATION 283

Chapter 14 Hiring, Employee Supervision, and Termination 285

Overview of the Employment-At-Will Doctrine	285
Implied Employment Contracts	286

Public Policy Exception to the Employment-at-Will Doctrine	286
Whistle-Blower Protections	287
Employee Privacy Rights	288
Federal Solutions: Existing Legislation	290
The Electronic Communications Privacy Act of 1986	290
Overview of ECPA Title II: Prohibition Against Accessing Stored Electronic Communications	291
Exceptions for the Interception of and Access to Electronic Communications	293
Disclosure under Title I and Title II	294
Damages under the ECPA	295
State Statutes	295
Employment Discrimination	295
Overview of Employment Discrimination Laws	296
Theories of Liability under Employment Discrimination Statutes	297
Harassment	297
Employer Liability for Harassment	297
Bona Fide Occupational Qualification (BFOQ)	298
Discrimination Concerns and Technology	298
E-Mail and Electronic Bulletin Boards	298
The Americans with Disabilities Act: Discrimination Against Online Consumers	300
Chapter 15 Computer Crime, Internet Regulation, and Obscenity	305
Crackdowns in Cyberspace	305
Regulating E-Mail Solicitations: State Legislation and the CAN-SPAM Act of 2003	306
Computer-Related Crime	306
Unauthorized Use	307
Denial of Service Attacks	308
Virtual Vandalism	309
Programs Intended to Cause Damage	309
Cyber Stalking	310
Computer Crime Statutes	310
Computer Fraud and Abuse Act of 1986 (18 U.S.C. § 1030)	311
Global Perspectives on Cyberlaw: The European Union's Cyber Cops	312
Civil Liability and Remedies	313
Obscenity	314
Overview of the Historical Background of Obscenity Regulation	314
Obscenity in Cyberspace	314
The Communications Decency Act	314
Congressional Response to Reno I: Child Online Protection Act of 1998	315
State Attempts to Regulate Internet Obscenities	316
Appendix A	Amendments to the U.S. Constitution 321
Appendix B	Federal Trademark Dilution Act 323
Appendix C	Uniform Dispute Resolution Policy (UDRP) 324
Appendix D	Excerpt from the Digital Millennium Copyright Act (1998) 325
Glossary	335
Table of Cases	343
Index	345